

3088 - Audience Summary

This course is for network administrators new to Novell Open Enterprise Server 2 for Linux needing to know how to properly understand, install, and support the product and the basic services included with the product.

3088 - Course Prerequisites

You should take Novell Networking & Services (Course 2000) or have the equivalent network-related experience before attending this course.

3088 - Course Outline

This course provides a high-level view of the services offered by Novell Open Enterprise Server 2 with particular focus given to the following topics:

- Installing Novell Open Enterprise Server 2 on the SUSE Linux Enterprise Server 2 platform
- Understanding and describing Novell eDirectory
- Performing basic eDirectory administration
- Managing eDirectory objects
- Installing and managing the Novell Client
- Understanding and managing NCP volumes
- Managing file system rights
- Managing eDirectory rights
- Managing iPrint in Novell Open Enterprise Server 2
- Configuring basic networking services with Novell Open Enterprise Server 2

3088 - Course Testing Information

This course will help prepare you for the Novell Certified Administrator (NCA) - Enterprise Services exam (Exam 050-719).